Social Service Club Activity

A Visit to Government Girls School, F Block

Philanthropy is not just about moving commodities from a benefactor's pocket to a fund raisers pocket, but scientists and researchers, on the other hand have found, after doing an MRI of the brains of people, that, those who indulge in charity, found the joy centres of their brains light up, the brain chemistry changes, oxytocin increases. We, as humans have been wired from thousands of years to share and care rather than just accumulate and defend. Now the question arises, how to develop philanthropy among kids. Nosegay Public School took this initiative by taking 15 children from VIII standard, to the Government Girls School located near the Masjid, F Block for a small excursion, on 5th August, 2019, in order to expose them towards social responsibility that every individual shares. To start with, the students under the guidance and support of Ms. Sangeeta Chhibber (Examination Head) along with Ms. Jyoti Khurana, Ms. Anju Verma, Mr. Kishan Dan and Ms. Mithas Hara, headed towards the destination at 10:30 am sharp, accompanied with students bubbling with enthusiasm and curiosity.

On arrival, the government school's Principal Mrs. Asha Chugh warmly welcomed everyone. The interaction was the most exciting part which started off with a song performance, "Ye Mat Kaho Khuda Se, Meri Mushkilen Badi Hain", as prepared by class VIII representatives with sheer hard work and zeal under the tutelage of Ms. Jyoti Khurana and Ms. Anju Verma. Yes, it was a one of a kind experience for our little artists to perform and the applause encouraged the little ones even more to carry on with the play named "beti padhao". The play, again being prepared by the students gave a profound message on the importance of Girl's education. The girls, in today's world require equal opportunities as it is apparent, that gender has nothing to do with dreams and aspirations. An important thing, which requires a special mention is how these little ones observed everything with their eyes and perspectives, was full of wonder. They thoroughly enjoyed the interaction and as quoted by one of the children, "We will never forget today's wonderful experience of humanity and kindness. Thank you teachers. We were able to understand and learn other aspects of life as well. It was a unique experience indeed". Eventually a "Plant of friendship" was planted in the school premises, in order to cherish the moments. It needs to be mentioned that there is no scarcity of philanthropists but of ideas. We should not focus on size rather on the impact that it creates to feel connected to a cause, to a moral purpose bigger than us. Nosegay Public School has planted this seed of inclusiveness in order to encourage and inspire even more children and society at large to participate and realize their social responsibilities.
